

DORSET THEATRE-GOERS CLUB
The Rise and Fall of Little Voice
Salisbury Playhouse
Saturday 14 May 2022 at 2.15pm

AGM – Salberg Room, Salisbury Playhouse 11.00am

Little Voice leads a quiet life seeking companionship from music's most iconic singers whilst her mother, Mari Hoff, indulges in a life of booze and seedy men. When Mari starts dating a small-time club owner Ray Say, Little Voice's impersonations of Shirley Bassey, Judy Garland, to name a few, thrust her into the spotlight. Little Voice might be Ray's one last chance to hit the big-time, but what will be the consequences for mother and daughter?

This Olivier Award-winning comedy-drama explores the highs and lows of small-town dreams, family rivalry and finding your voice in a noisy world.

Starring Shobna Gulati (Coronation Street, Dinnerladies, Loose Women) and Ian Kelsey (Emmerdale, Casualty) and "the girl of a thousand voices" Christina Bianco as Little Voice.

Please cut here-----

(Please do not staple your cheque to this form - thank you)

Rise and Fall of Little Voice – Salisbury Playhouse – Saturday 14 May 2022

PLEASE NOTE - WE NEED PAYMENT BY 1 April 2022

Membership Number: Wey _____ Dor _____ Wim _____

Name(s): _____ No. of seats: _____

If requested, guest's name(s): _____

Value of cheque(s) enclosed for Member(s) and Guest(s) tickets @ £45.00.00 each: _____

NB: Cheques are generally paid into the bank 6 weeks before the excursion date.

Please make separate cheques for each excursion payable to: DTGC or Dorset Theatre-Goers' Club

Usual pick-up point _____

NB: From time-to-time, we may need to ask you to change your pick-up point.

If possible, please seat me with: _____

Name of next of kin: _____ Phone _____

If you have eyesight, hearing or physical problems, please inform the Booking Secretary so that, if possible, adequate seating arrangements can be made.

Ensure you write your full membership number on the back of your cheque(s) and send together with this completed booking form to: